

FAMILY PRACTICE PRIMARY CARE BILLING SERVICE

Our Family Practice billing team reviews several sources in a patient's file, such as the physician's transcription, diagnostic examination reports, imaging reports, and other sources, to verify the services performed and assign suitable Family Practice codes.

Incorrect code submission can lead to continuous claim denials, underpayments, and a disrupted workflow. Such difficulties can result in unnecessary claim-related burdens and complex medical billing issues.