

INTERNAL MEDICINE BILLING SERVICE

Our Internal Medicine billing team reviews several heads in a patient's file, such as the provider's transcription, diagnostic reports, imaging reports, and additional sources, to demonstrate the services performed and assign appropriate codes.

False code submission can lead to endless claim denials, underpayments, and a disrupted workflow. Such problems can result in extreme claim-related burdens and difficult billing issues.