

FIRST STEP MEDICAL BILLING

Pulmonary Medicine

As a pulmonologist, most of your time may be spent on outpatient consultations and follow-up appointments, but also likely do inpatient visits along with various tests and procedures for conditions.

The wide range of diagnostic codes means that patients medical records are more accurate and reflected in the billing.

A biller and coder can help to assure you that you are not underneath or over-coding, so that can maximize your rebates while maintaining billing compliance.